

ECONOMICS, FINANCE, CONTROL & LAW

Benjamin Vincendeau

Associate Professor in Law

Contact

Email: b.vincendeau@ipag.fr

Phone: +33 1 5363 3600

Campus: Paris

Biography

Benjamin Vincendeau is teacher-researcher at IPAG Business School. Holding a Ph.D. in Private Law on “Corporate Social Responsibility, a comparative study between American and French Law for Listed Corporations” at the University of Cergy-Pontoise, he publishes articles in various specialized journals in Business Law, Consumer Law and Contract Law. Dr. Vincendeau also participates in many symposiums in these fields and contributes to collective works.

Teaching Areas

- Business & Labor Law,
 - International Private Law,
 - International Commercial Law,
 - Commercial Law
-

Research Areas

- Business Law,
 - Private Law
-

Professional experiences

Since 2017: Professor in Law at IPAG, Paris & Student-Advocate at the EFB, Paris

2010-2017: Teacher in Private Law at the University of Cergy-Pontoise

Selected publications

Management of the collective work of doctoral researchers of the LEJEP, in "The role of the exception in the dynamics of law". Lextenso, 2018, forthcoming.

Introduction of the collective work of doctoral researchers of the LEJEP, in "The role of the exception in the dynamics of law". Lextenso, 2018, forthcoming.

"Les voies de la compliance", RIMHE, September 2018, forthcoming.

"Les conséquences de la contractualisation des procédures de liquidation du régime matrimonial", Petites Affiches, July 2018, forthcoming.

"La SNCF et la RATP peuvent désormais invoquer la force majeure du fait d'un tiers pour s'exonérer de leur responsabilité extracontractuelle", note sous Cass. 2ème civ. (2 arrêts), 8 févr. 2018, Petites Affiches, No. 70, 6 April 2018

"La vaine contestation de la prépondérance de l'avocat dans les procédures de divorce", Petites Affiches, No. 55, 16 March 2018

"The transposition of article 5 of Directive 93/13 / EEC: the contributions of Belgian and French law", Review of European Union Law, No. 591, Dalloz, September 2015.
